

Activity Type: Participative

Activity Name: Lecture on Protection of Women under Indian Legal System

Session: 2023-2024

Date: 29th June 2024

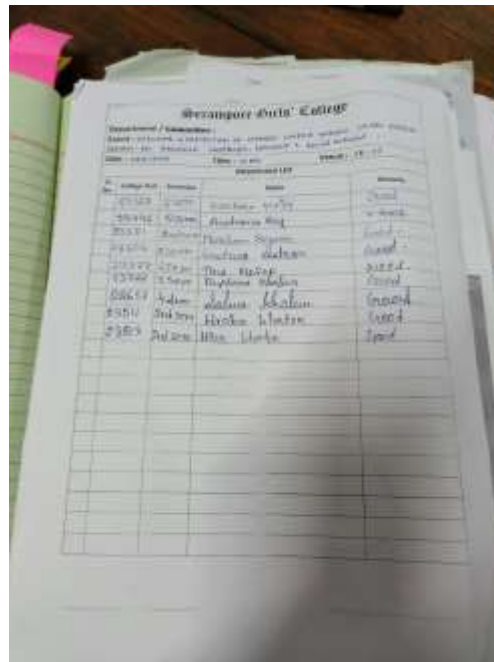

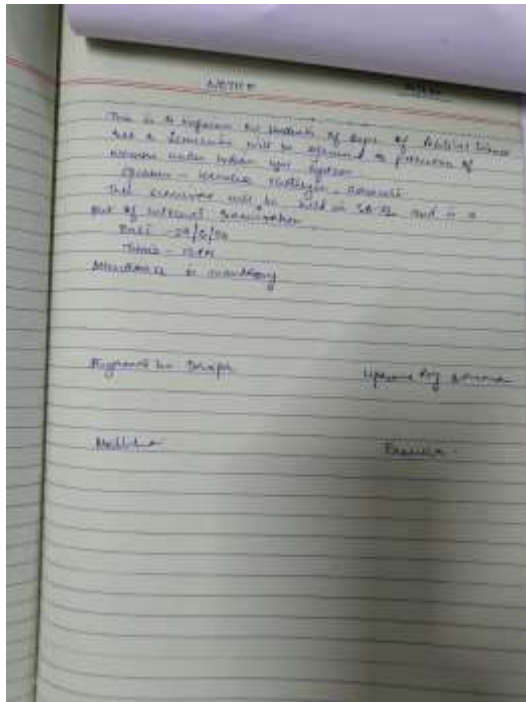

No. of Participants: 100

Objective: To help students understand the women laws helped to counter Crimes in India and broaden their horizon with regard to these concepts.

Brief Description

Women centric crimes and laws for the same are important topics of SEC course under the NEP syllabus. It will further help them to write accurate and descriptive answers for upcoming exams and term papers. The Resource Person Mr Kaushik Chatterjee, a renowned advocate enlightened the discussion with simple and complex sides of women laws especially cyber crimes in India

Outcome:

The Students enjoyed the Special Lecture and even asked the resource person interesting questions for the same.