NOTICE

Objective:

To enhance students' understanding of the life, works, and historical context of Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay, a seminal figure in Bengali literature, through direct engagement with his ancestral home and museum. The program aimed to foster a deeper appreciation for literary heritage and its connection to social and national awakening.

Description: The Department of Bengali, Serampore Girls' College, organized an outreach program to Bankim Bhaban in Naihati. Students explored Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay's home and museum, with guided tours contextualizing his contributions to Bengali prose and patriotic thought.

Outcome: The program provided an immersive learning experience, deepening students' understanding of Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay's literary legacy and his influence on 19th-century Bengal, enriching their appreciation for Bengali cultural heritage.
