➤ Introduction:

The Department of Sanskrit organised a Fresher's Welcome and Farewell Programme to warmly welcome the newly admitted students and bid farewell to the outgoing students of the Department. The programme aimed to create a friendly and cordial atmosphere among students of different academic years and to strengthen the sense of belongingness and fraternity within the Department.

➤ Objectives:

1. To warmly welcome the newly admitted students to the Department.
2. To introduce the freshers to the faculty members and senior students.
3. To provide an opportunity for interaction among students of different semesters/years.
4. To bid a warm and memorable farewell to the outgoing students.
5. To appreciate the academic and co-curricular contributions of the outgoing students.
6. To promote friendship, cooperation and a sense of community among the students.
7. To encourage the newly admitted students to actively participate in the academic and cultural activities of the Department.

➤ Outcome:

The programme was successful in achieving its objectives. It provided a valuable platform for interaction between freshers, senior students and outgoing students. The event also helped to foster a spirit of unity, friendship and mutual respect among the students.

For the freshers, the programme marked the beginning of a new academic journey in the Department, while for the outgoing students, it served as a memorable farewell and an opportunity to reflect upon their experiences and achievements.

Participants: 10 (1st & 3rd Semester students)

➤ Introduction:

The Department of Sanskrit, [Name of the University/College], organized a Students' Seminar on [Topic/Theme of the Seminar] on [Date] at [Venue]. The seminar was organized with the objective of encouraging students to develop their academic, research, presentation, and communication skills. It also provided an opportunity for students to engage critically with important issues related to Sanskrit language, literature, philosophy, culture, and Indian knowledge traditions.

➤ Objectives:

The major objectives of the Students' Seminar were:

- To encourage students to participate actively in academic activities.
- To develop students' presentation and public-speaking skills.
- To promote independent thinking and research-oriented learning.
- To enhance students' understanding of various aspects of Sanskrit studies.
- To provide a platform for academic discussion and exchange of ideas among students and teachers.
- To encourage students to explore classical Sanskrit texts from contemporary and interdisciplinary perspectives.

➤ Outcome:

The Students' Seminar successfully achieved its intended objectives. It helped students:

- improve their academic presentation skills;
- develop confidence in public speaking;
- cultivate research-oriented thinking;

- engage in constructive academic discussion;
- improve their ability to interpret and analyse Sanskrit texts; and
- appreciate the wider significance of Sanskrit studies.

The seminar also created an encouraging academic environment within the Department and motivated students to participate in future seminars, conferences, workshops, and research activities.

Report on Remedial Classes

Academic Session: 2025 - 2026

Department of Sanskrit

Activity type: Problem Solving Methodology

Date:

Time: 3:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Semester – 1st

Venue: NB 5

Resource Person: Dr. Tista Biswas, HOD of Sanskrit, Serampore Girls' College

Mrs. Kabery Hossain, Asst. Prof., Serampore Girls' College

Dr. Silpi Adhikari, SACT-I, Serampore Girls' College

Participants: 6 (1st Semester's students)

➤ Introduction:

The Department of Sanskrit organized Remedial Classes for Slow Learners as part of its academic support and student-centric teaching initiatives. The programme was designed to provide additional academic assistance to students who required more time, guidance, and individualized attention to understand the prescribed course content.

➤ Objectives:

- To identify and support students who face difficulties in understanding the regular course content.
- To clarify fundamental concepts and strengthen the academic foundation of the learners.
- To provide additional opportunities for interaction between teachers and students.
- To improve students' reading, writing, comprehension, and analytical skills in Sanskrit.
- To encourage active participation and develop confidence among slow learners.
- To help students prepare effectively for internal and semester-end examinations.
- To ensure inclusive and equitable learning opportunities for all students.

➤ Outcome:

The remedial classes provided students with an opportunity to overcome their academic difficulties in a supportive learning environment. The additional guidance helped them develop greater confidence, improve their understanding of the subject, and participate more actively in classroom activities. The programme also enabled teachers to understand the specific learning needs of individual students and provide appropriate academic support
