Guidelines

Introduction:- The University Grants Commission (UGC) has made NAAC a mandate by 2022. Institutes, Colleges and Universities are using NAAC as a yardstick to authenticate their quality Standards. Therefore NAAC accreditation has a unique process with a self-study report that drills down to achieving Institutional excellence. By the time an institute becomes NAAC-ready, it is chiselled to perfection.

NAAC process is carried out in 3 stages-

- * Institutional Information for Quality Assessment (IIQA) and self-study report (SSR)
- * Student satisfaction Survey (SSS) and data Validation & Verification (DVV)
- * Peer Team Report (PTR) & Institutional grading. We have to ensure that SSR contains the following Evidences of

- (a) Contribution into the core values.
- (b) Building from the Strengths identified by the institutions
- c) Action taken to rectify the deficiencies recognized by the institution.
- d) Efforts made by the Institution towards quality enhancement.
-) Future plans of the Institution for enhancing quality.

Discussion on AQAR Criterion 6.5.2

Academic Session 2020 - 21

Due to the breakout of the pandemic Covid-19 there has been lockdown from March 2020. Since then academic activities have been carried out online. In the online teaching learning mode many innovative methods have been introduced in the New Normal.

- a) Online classes have been held through Google meet
- b) Study materials were regularly uploaded in the college departmental website, whatsapp groups, youtube lectures
- c) Continuous Internal Assessment through google class rooms, google forms, whatsapp, tests were taken through whatsapp and mail ids.
- d) Students activities like students' seminar, quiz, open house discussion through online, book review, faculty exchange programmes, extension lectures etc.
- e) Subject wise webinars of all departments were held successfully.
- f) Value education imparted by Principal of our college through online mode to facilitate moral upliftment among our students.
- g) Library facilities were made available to the students. Some of the students availed of the facilities.
- h) IQAC reviews the teaching - learning process through departmental profiles (hard copies) which have been prepared with full academic reports by different departments. IQAC members verified different departmental profiles. doubt clearing, experiential learning, participative learning, mentoring, remedial teaching.

Study tours are held every year. However due to pandemic and lockdown study tours could not be held in 2020-21. Most departments have contributed to teaching learning wholesomely which has been reviewed thoroughly through departmental profiles and it has been found out that academic results have improved tremendously. Most of the students have scored above 70%.
